

Ticket Relay Heralds First Event of '52 Homecoming

With the big day only one week off, final Homecoming plans indicate that the 1952 affair will be one of the best publicized and elaborate in recent years.

Omaha to Doane ticket relay given the Homecoming advance publicity in news- and on Omaha radio and on stations.

Progress of the relay will be reported by television and at least three radio stations and will be covered by papers in the Omaha-Crete area.

The quota of runners to carry the ticket to the mayor of Crete has been filled. At last report, more cars were needed to transport runners to their starting points and return them to Omaha.

The runner carrying the ticket into Otoe will be feted at a traditional pow-wow tonight. Real buffalo steaks will be served to the Indian brave. All Omaha U. students are invited to attend the Otoe pow-wow, but must bring their own food.

The final leg of the run into Crete is scheduled to be completed tomorrow.

Next Friday, the day before the game, classes will be dismissed for the afternoon to allow students to participate in the pep rally downtown. The student body, headed by the band, will form at 24th and Douglas Streets and will parade on foot to the steps of the Douglas County Courthouse.

The only cars in the procession will be those of the Alumni. They will carry the past Homecoming queens, Homecoming candidates, and the cheerleaders to the scene of the rally.

Following the rally, the Warriors will lead the student body in a snake dance through downtown streets.

Organizations participating in the parade are urged to make banners identifying their group.

Student council members have been assigned to handle various assignments in connection with the Homecoming dance-ride evening at Peony Park.

Irvin Jones secured Ralph Martel to play for the affair. Merlyn, general Homecoming chairman, will serve as master of ceremonies and will announce the 1952 Princess at the intermission of the dance.

Pat Cosford is in charge of securing gifts for the princess and princess candidates. Syntha Judd heads the program and invitation committee and will secure corsages for the candidates.

Other chairmen are Joan Willey, publicity; Ray Hampton, costumes; and Jerry Tannahill, decorations.

Novel campaign slogans and vigorous campaigning marked the campaign to elect the Homecoming princess this week. Publicity gimmicks included top hats and gigantic lollipops.

Half-time ceremonies for the Saturday game are being planned jointly by Dr. Robert Flester, band director, the Warriors pep organization and Orchestris, the modern dance group.

Student leaders of the half-time planning committee are Jo Thorson, Maynard Tafelman and Tom Meyer with Jerry Welling as the general chairman.

The Alumni organization is also planning an active week-end. In addition to a get-together Friday in the headquarters at the Fontelle Hotel, the alums will participate in the Friday parade. Saturday, they will meet the Doane team on West Dodge street, and escort them to the hotel headquarters.

The Doane team will be treated to a rally in its honor.

Phyllis Wilke is chairman of the displays committee.

Debate Teams on Campus for College Meet

Debaters from ten schools will be on the Omaha University campus this afternoon and tomorrow for the annual College Invitational Debate Tournament.

Twenty teams representing Nebraska: Wesleyan University, Doane College, Peru State Teachers College, Wayne State Teachers College, Midland College, Creighton University, Nebraska University, Simpson College, Augustana College and Omaha University will debate for team and individual trophies.

The freshman teams of Marie Jipp-Arlyss Welch and Ken Bauer-Ed Bralley will debate for Omaha University. Pat Pomphrey and Jean Bednar are university entrants in the discussion section. J. D. Tyson, university debate coach, is director of the tournament assisted by the University of Omaha debaters.

The topic of the debate will be "Resolved: that the Federal Government should enact a compulsory FEPC program." The discussion group will talk on "How can we best prevent the spread of Communism as displayed within the USA?"

The tournament will have four rounds of debate for all the teams. There will be one final round between the two top-rated teams of the first four rounds. There will be two rounds of discussion.

On Saturday at 1:30 p. m., the fifth and championship round will be held.

Savings, Insurance Problems Will Be Lessons As Bus Ads Takes Over Television Classroom

Family security, insurance problems, family investment and property ownership will be discussed in the fifth television university presentation. The series, "Family Financial Management," began last Monday over television station KMTV.

This unique educational medium being operated by staff members of Omaha University, through the directorship of the College of Adult Education, has been growing with each television presentation. Television station KMTV provides the university time and the station publicity for each series.

The "Family Financial Management" series is subdivided into three sections. The first section will be "Family Insurance and Family Credit." It will be taught by R. Wayne Wilson, assistant professor of business administration. The subject will include family credit, its uses and abuses. It will explain insurance and try to show the proper time to buy insurances, what kind of policies to buy, and what amount of insurance to buy. An additional feature of the course will be answering questions sent in by the viewing audience. Any person watching the classroom may send in questions although he is not registered in the course.

The second section of the series will be "Family Savings and Investments." William Hockett, assistant professor of business administration, will be instructor. The subject will cover the handling of individual savings and the various types of investment which may be selected.

The third section of the fifth series will be conducted by C. Glenn Lewis, instructor of business administration, and will concern "Family Real Estate." Discussion of buying or building homes, how to finance, values in remodeling and mortgages will be included in the final section. Dr. Donald Emery, associate dean of this College of Education, is director of the "classroom."

OU Chest Donations Boost Connie Eade, Jack Fraenkel

Connie Eade, Zeta, and Jack Fraenkel, Theta Chi, reigned as the OU Campus Chest royalty climaxing a week of donations to the Community Chest.

Miss Eade was elected the girl with "The Cutest Pan" and received a compact for the victory. Fraenkel took honors in "The Ugliest Man" balloting and was awarded a mask.

Co-chairmen Charles Platt and Jack Frost expressed satisfaction over the results of the campaign. Approximately $945 was raised via the election process. An additional $65 was given to the fund after the pancake breakfast.

The 1952 total is $50 over last year's sum but actually fell $50 short of the goal set by APO, the sponsoring organization.

Friday, Oct. 31, was the final day for contributions. Previous to the deadline, $350 had been collected for the fund.

By 11 a. m., Friday, the total had increased to $425. However in the last hour, over $500 was delivered to the Campus Chest headquarters.

Following Zeta Tau Alpha in order of money contributed were Sigma Kappa, I. S. A., Alpha Xi Delta, and Chi Omega.

Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Pi Kappa Alpha, I. S. A., and Phi Epsilon Pi trailed Theta Chi in the Chest race.

Air Force Makes New Promotions

Commandant of Cadets Maj. Robert E. Whaley has announced the promotion of twenty AF-ROTC cadets to the rank of second lieutenant and the promotion of three cadets to corporal.

Cadet 2nd Lieutenants include Eugene Anderson, Kenneth Borchert, Donald Bucknam, Frank Comine, John Courtright, Darrell Cox, James Erixon, Robert Gerde-man, Edwin Gerelick and Robert Guide.

Newly appointed corporals are Kenneth Ford, Lee Nelson and Park Williams.

Four Cadets Fly to Cincinnati Meet

In an attempt to bring the 1954 National Arnold Air Society convention to Omaha University, four members of the organization flew to Cincinnati Wednesday to the Society's national headquarters.

The four AF-ROTC cadets who made the trip were Cadet Capt. Jack Katz, commanding officer; Cadet 1st Lt. Morton Glass, chairman of the Committee of '54; Cadet 2nd Lt. Roman Hruska, Jr., member of the committee and Cadet Capt. Burt McMillan, public relations officer of the Arnold Air Society.

Dr. Clark Smooths Cast Performance

Romance, adventure, and dramatic action will carry "Goodbye My Fancy" through "first night" performance this evening at 8:15. The production will be held in the university auditorium. There will be no reserved seats.

The story of "Goodbye, My Fancy," centers around the commencement weekend at Good Hope College and an honorary degree to be given to Agatha Reed, correspondent, and congresswoman. Barbara Zimmerman will portray Agatha.

Confusion Reigns

Mix-ups start when Agatha encounters Matt Cole, the Life photographer who still carries the torch for her after six years. Jack Frost will enact the role of Matt Cole and Bob Riggs will play James Merrill, Agatha's other suitor and president of Good Hope college.

Agatha fails to see changes in the school after her 20 year absence and also fails to notice any change in James Merrill, an administrator governed by the ideas of others. Agatha attempts to win over her former romance with Merrill, but basic principles of education policy separate them. Woody is wise.

Some of the memorable characters in the play are Woody, Agatha's wise-cracking secretary, portrayed by Mardell Squire; Miss Shackelford, the coordinator for the weekend, played by Leonore Marx; and Miss Birdshaw, the meek professor led astray by the influence of "ole debbil rum." Georgia Redfield plays Miss Birdshaw.

Mary Cosford will play Ginny Merrill, the president's daughter, and Norman Paasch is Claude Griswold. Students are Anita Raz-nichek as Mary Nell; Jane Englehart as Amelia; Pat Baker as Susan; Syntha Judd as Carol; Ann McTaggart as Clarisse, and Carol Nagaard as Jo.

The college professors will be portrayed as follows: Dr. Pitt, Ray Nass; and Professor Dingley, Val Kuffel. Pat Smith and Sheila Schwid are the Merry Larks, college girls; and the janitors are Jim Erixon and John Mitchell. Bill Pierson is the telephone man.

Dick Smith is student director of "Goodbye, My Fancy," and Dr. Edwin L. Clark is faculty advisor. The second performance of the play will be tomorrow night at 8:15.

Admission is 75 cents for non-students, and students may obtain a ticket by presenting their activity card at the box office today.

Grinnell Will Pay $100 for Scripts

Students and faculty members are invited to submit original 15 minute radio scripts for use by the Grinnell college radio players. The Grinnell players will pay $100 a script for those used on a series of 18 shows originating from Grinnell.

The scripts should be "of an intelligently patriotic motif" and be submitted in standard form. They may be in prose or poetry. All contributions should be sent to Herbert Prescott at Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa.

Rejected scripts will be returned. Each offering should contain a stamped return envelope.

Education Convo To Feature Skits

National Education Week is Nov. 10-16.

Classes will be shortened next Wednesday for an Education convocation in the auditorium, sponsored by the Future Teachers of America.

Eight university clubs, in addition to the FTA, will participate in the convocation by presenting skits on various aspects of education.

The FTA skit is an example. They will portray, in still life pictures, the children of today's world. On the stage will be a teacher and two students studying a map. This scene will be accompanied by narration and a background of music.

Dr. James Porterfield is in charge of the convocation. The student committee is: Bev Pace, Maynard Tafelman, Lois Albano, Leonore Marx, Jean Schmidt, and Pat Cosford.

Around OU Ticket Relay Begins Today

Pow-Wow at Otoe

By Bill Beindorff

The first lap of the 102 mile relay to Crete begins this morning at 9 when Omaha Mayor Glenn Cunningham starts the ticket off from his office.

Students will run the birchbark ticket most of the way but alumni and faculty will also participate.

Each trotting a mile of the lap will be faculty members Paul Beck, Gene Hampton and Bob McGranahan.

Jean Duncan, acting alumni secretary, pleads for students with cars to volunteer to transport the runners.

According to the relay schedule, whoever is running at 2:30 this afternoon will get a canoe ride across the Platte River before starting his mile.

The campsite at Otoe will be reached by today's last runner soon after 7 tonight when an all-school Pow-Wow will take place. Cheerleaders and band members will lead the celebration.

Princess Polling Ends

Omaha University students breathed a sigh of relief when the recent campaign for Homecoming Princess ended at 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Beating tom toms, screaming records, candy cigarettes and candy coated gum were all used to try to draw hesitant voters into the polls. Sign bedecked dogs were also put to advantage by campaigning organizations.

This campaign was probably the most active one in OU's Princess history. Whether "candy" gifts, drums, songs and dancing or just the silent campaign wins out will be revealed next Friday when the Homecoming Princess is announced at the dance.

But this year's princess will break all tradition, because the candidates are neither on the Student Council or on the cheerleading squad—outstanding qualifications of the last three Homecoming Princesses.

And the results of this election will either prove or disprove the current feeling of the Student Council members that a separate election of Homecoming Princess and class officers will bring as many or more voters to the polls. It does help organizations in one way, however. There are not as many posters and publicity stunts to create at one time.

Democrat Moans Loss

A crest-fallen OU Democrat is mournfully walking the halls.

Roger Dunbar vice-president of the OU Young Democrats, is wearing a black "mourning" band around his arm and a sign, calling for the presidential nomination of Adlai Stevenson in '56.

Rod Crane, economics department head, is happy with the outcome of the national election although he has lost a small wager.

Crane, an Ike supporter, took bets from other faculty members backing Stevenson so that no matter who won the election, he would be happy with the outcome.

Whew! Give Me Air

The ordinarily closed doors of the Registrar's office have been wide open the past week.

Office clerks are searching for a breathe of air due to the painters' invasion. The walls will be a sporting light buff upon completion.

EDITORIAL—

The first definite statistics have been received on the contrast between night and day football.

One of the three most recent replies states that attendance would drop "by at least 50 per cent if football games were played in the daytime."

The same letter includes figures which show that crowds nearly doubled when the switch was made to evening games. The school had installed new lights in 1948, after total receipts for the previous two years' day games had averaged about $880.

After lights were installed, the receipts averaged almost $1,650 for twenty night games over a four-year span. The cost of the lights was $8,800.

One other reply reinforced the previous opinions expressed, although specific facts were not available. The letter said that "a school like ours must play in the evening to draw anyone outside of school."

Facts such as these, coupled with the more than 830 signatures on student petitions, show a definite favoritism toward night football.

The time to approach the Regents is here.

Foreign Language Head Says Future Will Bring About Revolution in Teaching

Christopher S. Espinosa, head of the foreign languages department, thinks an international revolution in the teaching of foreign languages is in the future.

Espinosa endorses a program proposed by Dr. Earl J. McGrath, national commissioner of education.

At the Central States Modern Language Teaching convention in St. Louis last May, McGrath noted that there has been a shift in the usefulness of foreign languages.

'Understanding Invaluable'

"Today, political, economic and military leaders recognize the practicability of foreign languages outside the classroom," McGrath said.

"Due to extensive travel by both civilians and the military, an understanding of foreign tongues is invaluable. It's hard for nations to talk peace if they cannot understand one another."

As the need for the understanding of foreign languages increases, McGrath feels that such teaching should begin in the elementary grades.

Aspects Unlimited

In his classes at OU, Espinosa tries to adapt the study of foreign languages to the needs and changes of modern life both in its national and international aspect.

"The usefulness of foreign languages will no longer be limited to teaching and the enjoyment of literature," he said.

Recently, a $120,000 grant was given by the Rockefeller foundation to the Modern Language Association for a three-year inquiry into the role which foreign languages should play in American life.

An international seminar on the teaching of Modern Languages for World Understanding is being sponsored by UNESCO next summer.

Copy, Pictures Due Today

Today is the deadline for all copy and pictures for the organizational display in the Tomahawk. News Editor Jim Townsend announced that each organization should turn in informal snapshots of group activities.

Gridmen Still After Initial Road Win

By Bob Peck

It's the same old story again this week. The Omaha U grid team will journey to Fayette, Mo., tonight to try for their first win on the road.

It will be the last chance of the season for the Indians to triumph on the road, as the season ends next weekend with Doane in Omaha. Missouri Central College will be hosts to the Omahans in a night contest.

Hopes for an Omaha win tonight did not brighten any this week. Halfback Keith Christie will definitely miss the trip because of an injured arm muscle. Also, Halfback Bob Schropp may miss the trip.

Schropp, who has been haunted with injuries all season, suffered an injured leg in last week's game with Northern Illinois, and may not see action.

The Indian defensive unit will have its hands full with one Missourian in particular. He is Ron Fidler, Central's triple threat gridder.

Fidler quarter-backs the Missouri split T, and runs, kicks and throws, equally well.

Last week Fidler directed his mates to a 7-6 squeeze past Quincy College. Next week they go against a tough William Jewell College.

Missouri Central was no world beater last season, as they picked up only one victory. Tonight they are trying for their win as are the Indians.

Omaha U can finish the season on the right side of the won-lost column if they can win tonight and then down Doane next week in the season finale.

As far as experience goes, Missouri Central and OU are about even.

The Missourians have only five seniors and a handful of juniors on the team. The burden is carried by 15 sophomores.

With the absence of Christie and Schropp, the starting Omaha backfield could very well include Jerry Welling, Jerry Bahensky, Aksel Schmidt and Jerry Ziehe.

The starting line on offense will probably see Don Maseman and Bob Rose at ends, Harry Johnson and Steve Marinkovich at tackles, Don Hopkins and Dick Edgerton at guards, and Captain Larry Johnson at the center position.

Don Hoppins will serve as co-captain with Johnson for the Missouri Central tilt.

Christie Leads

Keith Christie continued his domination of the statistics sheet this week, as the ace back leads the team in six departments.

In total offense Christie boosted his mark to 737 yards, compared to 360 by runner-up Jerry Welling. Bob Schropp is third with an even 200 yards to his credit.

In yards gained rushing on the ground, Christie again is on top with 345 yards to the 200 owned by second place Schropp. Aksel Schmidt moved into third place this week with 141 yards.

Road Jinx Continues As Indians Lose 20-6

Northern Illinois kept OU's grid team road jinx alive by downing the Indians 20 to 6 at De Kalb, Illinois Saturday night.

The Indians jumped to an early lead, on a one-yard plunge by Jerry Welling. The touchdown was set up on runs by Jerry Tannahill, Jerry Ziehe, and Aksel Schmidt.

But the Omaha lead soon vanished. Harold Anderson caught a James Graham pass that netted 60 yards and a touchdown. That ended the scoring for the first quarter.

Northern Illinois passed its way to another touchdown early in the second quarter. Graham pitched this one in the end zone to McKinzie. Northern Illinois insured victory in the fourth quarter on a 12-yard touchdown run by Jack Phenix.

The Indians' only serious threat came in the third quarter. They marched 80 yards to the home team's ten, but an offside penalty stopped their drive, and Northern Illinois took over.

The OU line play was sparked by Don Maseman, Larry Johnson, and Dick Edgerton.

Pi Kap's, Sig Ep's Meet Today; May Decide Champions

By Charlie Rice

At the end of the fifth week of mural play Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Kappa Alpha are still battling for the top spot in the league.

The Sig Ep's hold a slim edge as they have played one more contest than the Pi Kaps. Today's battle between the two clubs will probably decide this year's champion.

In last week's games the Sig Eps rolled past Lambda Chi Alpha 47-0 and the Blackhawks 2-0, while the Pikes downed the Independents 27-0.

The Sig Eps took to the air as they connected on seven touchdown passes against the Lambda Chis. Tom Mosiman and Bob Moscrey were on the pitching end with five Sig Eps figuring in the scoring.

Leading the scoring parade were Bob Chapman and Roger Orr, each snaring two touchdown passes. Ralph Whitney, Glen Heagle, and Mosiman complete the scoring list. Game Replayed.

Last Friday the Blackhawks and Sig Eps met again, this time to replay the game ruled no contest by the Intramural council. Lee Nelson saved the day for the Sig Eps when he grabbed Jack Danze in the end zone for a safety.

The same afternoon the Pi Kaps rolled past ISA 27-0. In the first half the Pikes jumped to a quick lead when Jim McCart threw a 10-yard pass to Brendon Gallagher for the tally.

The Pi Kap's followed with another TD as Gallagher threw a 20-yard aerial to McCart. McCart scored his second touchdown of the day on a 30-yard run.

Kenny Olson ended the Pikes scoring for the first half as he downed an ISAer in the end zone for a safety.

Win by Forfeit
The Pi Kaps' only score in the second half was a result of a 30-yard pass from Charlie Platt to Don Palmquist.

Lambda Chi Alpha scored their first win of the season, winning by forfeit from the Blackhawks Tuesday afternoon.

Theta Chi Bowlers Take League Lead With Three Game Sweep Over ROTC

Theta Chi keggers swept three games from the ROTC last Thursday to capture first place in the Intramural Bowling League. Frank Sedlacek bowled the high game of 201 and led in series totals with a score of 491. Theta Chi had a bye the first week.

ISA remained in a second place tie with Sigma Phi Epsilon with a 3-0 margin over Phi Epsilon Pi. Hap Hefflinger, the top bowler in the league, was high man with 213.

His series total was 620. Back was high for the Phi Eps with a series total of 389.

Lambda Chi Alpha, led by Ve Mallory and Terry Reynolds downed Pi Kappa Alpha, the league leader in the first week 2-1. Mallory had the highest series score and Reynolds had a 169. Gary Anderson's 143 led the Pi Kaps.

The competition in the league will continue from now until March or April. Teams meet on Thursday at the 40 Bowl. A trophy will be awarded to the winning team at the end of the season.

Sig Ep Pledges Skip from Actives

Sig Ep pledges spent Tuesday evening in a vacant house on State St., while active members searched for them.

The pledges skipped from their meeting in room 215 at the University while actives were in room 209. The pledges ran across Memorial Park to Dundee Presbyterian Church only to find that a few of the pledges were missing. Bill Duffack then ran all the way back to school for the others only to find that they had left. The actives were entirely unaware of the escape until 7:30 when the first clue was delivered.

The clue led the actives to Mandan Park where the third clue was found on a sign. This clue led them to the fourth hole of the Fontenelle Park golf course.

Actives spent the rest of the evening searching for a clue in a can in Upland Park. They were within six blocks of the hideout when the 12 o'clock deadline arrived.

Active Dick McKee was kidnapped by the pledges before the meeting and left at the house until the pledges could get there. They spent the evening listening to election returns and studying.

The actives and pledges then went to the 11. Worth Grill for a party.

Alpha Xi Entertains Theta Chi at Party

Alumnae, actives and pledges will attend. Pledges are in charge of the program.

Chi O Pledges Hide in 'Safe' Police Station

Twenty-six Chi Omega pledges skipped to Central Police Station from the active members last week.

The pledges hid on the fourth floor of the station across from prison cells. Maggie Claeson, pledge mistress, and active Ruth Longville hid with them from 5 to 11 p. m.

Actives received the first clue, leading them to the synagogue at 52nd and Charles in capsules immersed in a quart of syrup. The second clue led the Chi O's to Morton Park. They were unable to find the clue which was hidden in the pool drain.

A clue reading, "This fruit is wet said the little red hen, how can I get it dry again?" led to the next clue hidden in an egg drying plant. The key to a locker at the Omaha Union Station was left at the entrance of the psychopathic ward at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The last clues were at the Colo-

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
